This is a traditional Russian instrument called a balalaika. It has three strings and can be very large, very small, or anywhere in between. Here is what the word looks like in Russian: балалайка. Color the balalaika.

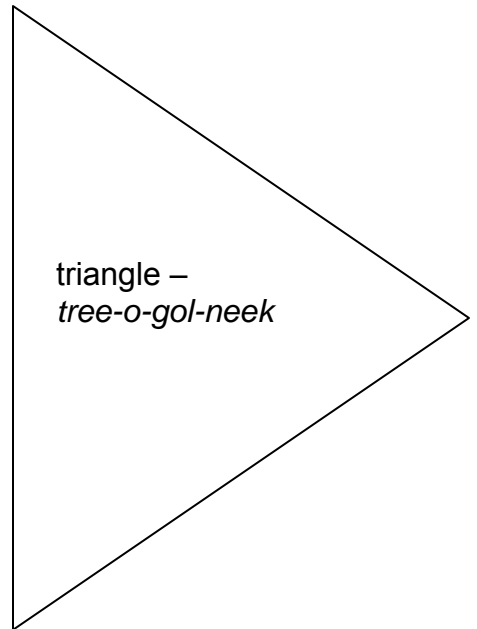

Look closely at the balalaika above, and then look at the shapes below. See if you can find the shapes that make up the instrument. Try to say the names of the shapes in Russian.

circle – krug

square – kva-drat

triangle –
tree-o-gol-neek

rectangle – pree-am-o-gol-neek
