

Traditional Indian Clothing

In India, most children wear clothes just like we do, but on special occasions, they wear traditional clothes like these. The girl is wearing a sari which is a very long cloth wrapped around to make a dress, and the boy is wearing a kurta which is a tunic or long shirt. Color the children in their festival clothing. Then draw in the background to show that they are at a celebration.